

Join the following sentences into compound sentence

- a. Prepare your lesson. Go out of the room.
- b. Jatin is a liar. Jatin is a thief.
- c. He loves to drive during the day. They will let him drive before 9pm.
- d. Stephen likes video games. Stephen does not like to pay for video games.
- e. You are not right. I am not right too.

Join the following simple sentences to A simple sentences

- A. I took the journey yesterday. I caught an express train.
- B. I met a friend. I was walking along the street then.
- C. He first selected a plot of land. Then he tried to build a fence.
- D. The old man was tired by days work. He wanted to sleep. He sank down on the road with his burden.
- E. He has a large family. He is provided a large house.
- F. I explained my case to the doctor. I was then seated on a chair.
- G. He confessed his guilt. He is acquitted of the charge.

Join the following sentences into a single meaningful sentence by using relative clause:

- A. Medical researchers have tested hundred of drugs on AIDS victims. Most of the drugs proved to be useless.
- B. Children starved in many villages. I know those children. The villages are not far away from the town.
- C. The principle is known to the geologists. The principle is known as uniformitarianism. It simply means that the processes are operating to modify the earth's surface.
- D. The painting made by Leonardo da Vinci was given as a gift to Lodovico Sforza. The painting is known as Lady with an Ermine. Lodovico Sforza was the patron of Vinci and the Duke of Milan.
- E. The ship wrecked in the middle of the Pacific Ocean near the Island of Solomon. The ship's name was Black Pearl. The Island of Solomon was notorious for sea – dacoits.
- F. The man has given the telephone bill to my bother. The bill has no name scribbled on it. My father knows the man.
- G. The engine is running at the maximum speed for a long time. It may start to overheat.
- H. Diseases are caused by viruses. They are often difficult to cure.
- I. The performance of the early models was poor. Development work is still going on.
- J. A bicycle is propelled by pedaling. A moped can be pedaled.

Join the following sentences into a single meaningful sentence by using adverbial clause:

- a. The sun came out. Everybody looked cheerful
- b. You must ask the headmaster's permission. You want to leave.
- c. Oil is lighter than water. It floats on water.
- d. It is very cold now. It is in the month of January.
- e. You may have some hesitation. You should reveal now.
- f. The shirt was very costly. I could not buy it
- g. Study well. Then you will pass the examination.
- h. He sat at a place. There was nobody around there.
- i. He came to know the truth. Then he left the place with anger.
- j. It is very dark. I could not see.
- k. This is my native land. I can sacrifice myself for it.
- l. Father bought a cake yesterday. The cake was delicious.
- m. I put the book on the table. Where is the book?
- n. He is very rich. He is not happy.

WORKSHEET ON NOUN CLAUSE

- 1. He will fight to the finish. He says this.
- 2. She will win the first prize. It is certain.
- 3. He was innocent. He could not prove that.
- 4. The manager committed the blunder. It is evident.
- 5. He will return the money in a couple of days. This is his promise.
- 6. The patient will recover. This is the doctor's assurance.
- 7. They saw the stranger. They say so.
- 8. Your claims for promotion will not be overlooked. Rest assured.
- 9. He has committed a mistake. It is obvious.
- 10. The exams may be postponed. The teacher says this.